MOTION TO UNSEAL SEARCH WARRANT DOCUMENTS PURSUANT TO COURT'S STANDING ORDER REGARDING SEALING OF WARRANTS

Comes now the United States of America, by and through the United States Attorney for the Western District of Texas, and, in compliance with the Court's Standing Order Regarding Sealing of Warrants dated September 27, 2012 (the "Court's Standing Order"), seeks an order to UNSEAL the Application and Affidavit for Search Warrant, the Search Warrant, and the Warrant Return (the Warrant Documents) filed in the above-styled and numbered cause, by filing the attached redacted version of the Warrant Documents for the public record.

The Warrant Documents were sealed at the government's request, as it appeared that the investigation would continue after the search of the premises, which it did. Execution of the warrant resulted in the seizure of evidence indicated on the Warrant Return.

The investigation relating to the Warrant Documents has concluded, the subject(s) of the investigation has been apprehended and prosecuted, and there is no longer an investigative need to keep the Warrant Documents under seal. As required by the Court's Standing Order, the Warrant Documents relating to the investigation shall be unsealed. Because the Application and Affidavit include references to personally identifiable information, to persons and entities who have not been charged and/or to persons and entities whose connection to the alleged activities are not in the public record, redaction of those references are appropriate under Fed. R. Crim. P.

49.1 and/or to prevent potential irreparable and irreversible harm to such persons and entities. Accordingly, the Court's order to unseal the documents should include the filing of the attached redacted version of the Warrant Documents.

Based on the foregoing, the United States requests that the Court issue an order, in compliance with the Court's Standing Order, to UNSEAL the Warrant Documents by filing the attached redacted version of the Warrant Documents for the public record.

Respectfully submitted,

JOHN F. BASH
United States Attorney
